

PARENTING CLASSES

Parenting PhD. (Douglas County Parenting Coalition) offers free workshops for parents and professionals on a variety of topics. Dinner and childcare are frequently provided as is continuing education credit.

offers parenting classes, support groups, and much more. GED for Parents Call the GED Hotline 720-865-5541 for test dates, classes, study information, and fees.

The Parent University (Douglas County Schools) is designed to support and empower parents to become leaders and advocates for their child's learning. Course offerings range from free to very reasonable.

Arapahoe / Douglas Mental Health Network offers courses on mental health, substance abuse, suicide prevention, attachment disorder, and more.

Children's Hospital offers classes on child safety, health, and development.

Peak Parenting Center offers training on a variety of topics to help parents support their children's educational success.

People House offers courses on and support groups for fathers and others.

Colorado State Extension Service –Partners in Parenting Parenting classes and a specialized lending library for parenting information and materials focusing on parenting as prevention, child/youth development, character education, substance abuse prevention, child abuse prevention, risks & protective factors, special populations and more. To enter the online library, visit: Partners in Parenting/Character Education Resource Center and enter CFERT for library name and click on Login.